

The Parable of The Unforgiving Servant

SMH

The Unforgiving Servant

Read the parable of the two debtors told by Jesus in Matt 18:23-33.
Then put the green words from the parable into the crossword puzzle.

One of the king's servants owed the king a great deal of money. However, he did not have the money to pay the king, so he asked the king to be patient and give him more time to repay the debt. The king felt bad for his servant and told him he did not have to repay the money. The entire debt was forgiven.

Once the servant left, he went looking for a worker who owed him a very small amount of money. The worker begged him to be patient. But the servant, who had just been forgiven by the king, had this man thrown in jail.

When the king heard how unkind his servant had been to the worker, he was angry. He told his servant, "Shame on you for treating your debtor this way, after all I did for you. Now you will go to jail, and you will pay me everything you owed me."

What good lessons we can learn from this parable. First, to treat others the way we would like to be treated, and second, to have a loving and forgiving heart.
